

Heron Highlights

March 10th, 2010

News:

The 2010 SAR and DAR recipients have been selected. Congratulations Jessica Johnson (DAR) and Ben Carson (SAR).

Vocational:

The Spring Advisory Committee Dinner and meeting will be held at BCHS on March 11, 6:00 p.m.

FBLA State Competitors will be competed on Tuesday in various business areas. The competitors will travel to Atlanta on March 25-28 for the 2010 State Leadership Conference to attend workshops and the Awards Ceremony.

Sports:

The varsity baseball team (1-2) lost to Bradwell Institute (3-AAAAA) by a score of 7-5. Gage Nettles threw four innings only allowing one run and Cole Dykes went 3 for 3 at the plate for the Herons.

The middle school baseball team (0-3) lost to Pierce County by a score of 18-8. Many players had key hits for the young Herons throughout the contest.

The junior varsity baseball team (0-2) lost to Ware County (2-AAAA) by a score of 15-0.

The varsity baseball team (3-2, 1-0) defeated Brunswick High (2-AAAA) by a score of 12-0. The game was ended early in the 5th inning due to mercy rule. Travis Manning, Gage Nettles, and Seth Hendrix combined for the shutout on the mound and Tanner Clark led the offensive night hitting a solo homerun in the 3rd Inning. Defensively, the Herons played another flawless game not making an error.
